- 1 websites. And so I was building websites in high
- 2 school and then partially through college. Went to
- 3 Dell, moved up to be a programmer at Dell, and then
- 4 continued my career as a developer.
 - Q. And where are you currently employed?
- 6 A. Adzerk or Kevel.
- 7 Q. Where were you employed prior to Kevel?
- 8 A. I -- I worked for a company called
- 9 Infozerk, which was an LLC consulting company that
- 10 I founded.

5

- Q. Did you work anywhere else between Dell 11
- 12 and Infozerk?
- 13 A. No. Wait. No, I'm sorry. Yes.
- 14 Between -- between Dell and Infozerk, yes. I
- 15 worked at a company called G.A. Sullivan that was
- acquired by Avanade. And then I also worked for a
- 17 company called Schawk, S-C-H-A-W-K, in Cincinnati.
- 18 Q. So what was your role at Dell?
- 19 A. I started out as an -- in support and
- 20 then moved on to be a software developer.
- Q. And briefly, what were your 21
- 22 responsibilities?
- 23 A. I was basically writing -- building the
- 24 tools that the support techs used while on the --
- 25 on the phone with customers.

- 1 Q. And who are Kevel's customers, category
- 2 of customers?
- 3 A. Yeah, categories? So we work with a 4 lot of marketplaces; e-commerce companies, Fintech,

Page 11

- and that includes kind of banks as well as, like,
- 6 newer Fintech apps.
 - And then we also work with digital
- at-home companies, and then, you know, I'd say a
- handful of, like, ad networks. So it's a pretty
- large variety of customer types.
 - Q. And what is your role at Kevel?
- 12 A. I'm the CEO.
 - Q. And what are your responsibilities as
- 14 Kevel's CEO?
 - A. Largely, managing our leadership team,
- 16 just about whatever -- whatever is asked of me.
- 17 Q. And how has your role in the company
- 18 changed since Kevel was founded?
- 19 A. Yeah. I mean, early on, I was writing
- a lot of code; I was, you know, very involved in
- different sales. Now, obviously, as we've gotten
- larger, I'm less involved. And they don't let me
- write code anymore. I'm more involved in, you
- know, the overall management of the company versus
- 25 the, you know, individual customers or projects.

Page 10

- 1 Q. Did you found Kevel?
 - A. Yes.

- 3 Q. In your time at Kevel, have you
- interacted with internet publishers? 4
 - A. Yes.
- 6 Q. How often?
- 7 A. I mean, early on, we were -- like, I
- was selling to those publishers, you know. Up
- until today, I still -- like, with some of our
- 10 larger publishers, we will, you know -- I'll still
- 11 be involved in -- in talking with large customers.
- 12 Q. And in your time at Kevel, have you
- 13 interacted with advertisers, ad agencies or
- 14 demand-side platforms?
 - MS. MORGAN: Objection to form.
- 16 BY MS. AGNEW:
- 17 Q. Let me rephrase.
 - In your time at Kevel, have you
- 19 interacted with advertisers?
- 20 MS. MORGAN: Objection to form.
- BY MS. AGNEW: 21
- 22 Q. You can answer.
 - A. Yeah, I'm trying to figure out, like,
- do -- interact -- we -- we don't work directly with
- advertisers. We've had discussions with them.

- 1 Q. Okay. And at Schawk, what was your 2 role?
- 3 A. I was software engineer and basically
- 4 was building a lot of the internal tools they used
- for, like, imaging preprocessing.
- 6 Q. And G.A. Sullivan?
- 7 A. Yeah. G.A. Sullivan I was a
- consultant, and so I was -- they basically -- we
- did deals with different companies for us to go
- 10 build their internal systems for them.
- 11 Q. And G.A. Sullivan was the consultancy?
- 12 A. Yeah. Yep.
- 13 Q. And Infozerk, what was your role?
- 14 A. Yeah. So I was -- it was basically
- 15 doing consulting for companies; going in and
- 16 helping them build, like, large enterprise software
- 17 programs.

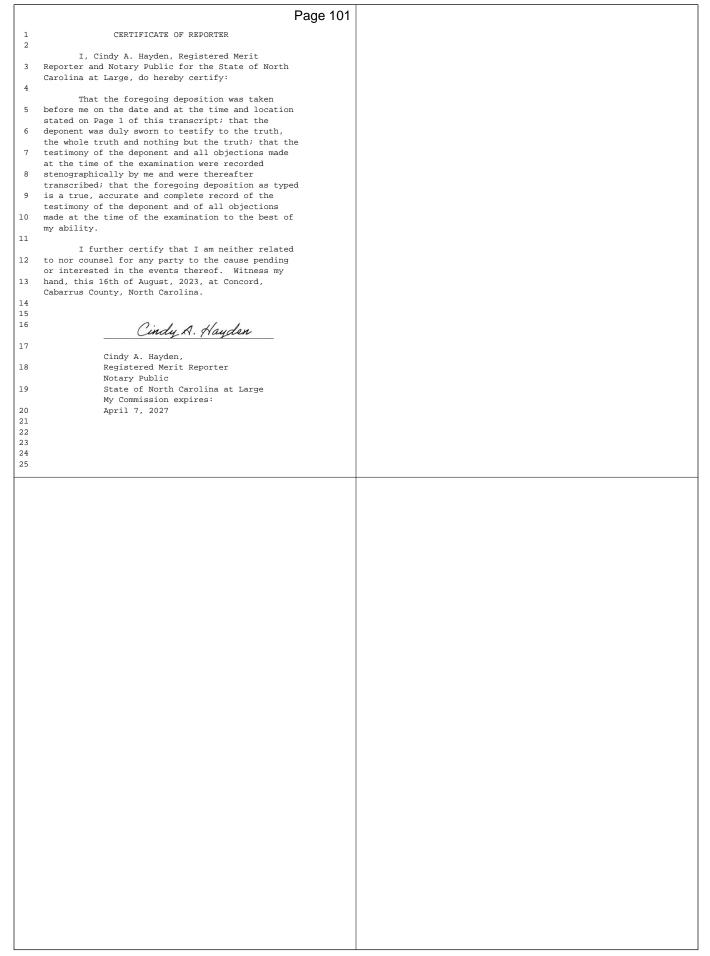

18

- Q. All right. Let's turn back to Kevel,
- 19 or would you prefer that I call it "Adzerk"?
- 20 A. Either one.
- 21 Q. Okay. In your current position, so at
- 22 a high level, what is Kevel's business?
- 23 A. At a high level, we -- we built a set
- 24 of APIs that customers use to build ad platforms;
- 25 so, essentially, an ad-serving API.

I remember that they said it doesn't work that way. Q. Was that their response in the 2012-2014? A. 2012-2014. Q. And what about the more recent approach you made to Google about integration? A. The more recent approach was essentially they they weren't aware of any integrations done to another ad server and that they would have to check internally to see if it was possible. And we have not heard back. Q. And when was the last time you heard from Google? A. This was months months ago.

The only option to integrate with AdX has been through AdX tags. BY MS. AGNEW: Q. And what does "OpenRTB" stand for? A. Open Real-Time Bidding. Q. And what is a server-to-server integration? A. That means that our server is calling their server as opposed to the connection being made from the client browser. Q. And what kind of integration is available on AdX with AdX tags? A. Client-side integration. Q. And what is client-side integration? A. It means that the call is happening from the customer's browser as opposed to from our server. Q. And what effect does that have on the publisher trying to call the exchange? A. It means that we're not able to run a single auction for all of their demand.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	essential to be able to compete for traditional publishers. Q.
